

Cybercrime and digital evidence

Goals and objectives of the discipline.

The purpose of this discipline is to theoretically and practically equip the student with knowledge about the social essence and determination of cybercrime and its individual criminal manifestations (carding, phishing, vishing, online fraud, piracy, card sharing, social engineering, malware, illegal content refilling), the main directions of preventive activities of state bodies, institutions and public organizations, the system of measures they develop and implement in accordance with the Constitution of Ukraine, laws and other regulations aimed at preventing cybercrime, protection of the rights and legitimate interests of citizens, reducing "fear of the population" before cybercrime.

The place of the discipline in the structure of the educational-professional program:

- a) academic discipline belongs to the disciplines of the criminal law cycle;
- b) in the study of this discipline uses the knowledge gained from the following disciplines - criminal law; criminal procedure law; Administrative Law; criminal executive law
- c) the main provisions of the discipline should be applied in the study of such disciplines - criminal law; criminal procedure law; forensics; legal basis for preventing corruption.

The content of the curriculum:

Module 1. Cybercrime: concepts, types and prevention.

The concept of cybercrime and its place in the overall structure of crime. Types of cybercrime. The concept and criminological characteristics of cybercrime. The identity of the cybercriminal. Causes and conditions of cybercrime. Prevention of cybercrime.

European Convention Mechanism for the Prevention of Cybercrime: Concept and System.

Determinants and main directions of cybercrime prevention

Module 2. Criminal law support in the fight against cybercrime.

The current state of criminal law in the fight against cybercrime.
System and general characteristics of cybercrimes.
Implementation of forms of criminal liability for cybercrime.

Module 3. Features of cybercrime investigation methods. Electronic evidence in criminal proceedings

Features of cybercrime investigation methods.

The concept of electronic evidence in criminal proceedings

Types of electronic evidence

Methods of collecting electronic evidence.

Use of digital evidence during the trial